What is a Privilege Motion in the Indian Parliament? How does the Committee of Privileges examine and deal with such motions? (Answer in 150 words) 10 Marks

Privilege motion is the motion taken by the member against the other members if he/she has breached the privilege of MP/MLA or contempt of House. (Article 105)

Committee of Privileges - examining the motion by :-

① Chairman of Rajya Sabha or the Speaker of Lok Sabha will either accept or reject the motion

② The leave of House will then send the proposal to the Privilege Committee

③ It will examine the complaint and can take the evidence, information from any member.

④ It will send the report to the house.

How the house deals with the report:—

- ① House may ask the member for Apology, Sorry, etc.
- ② House may give them the chance.
- ③ They may be suspended
for few days. (eg) → Raghuvar Chaddha
- ④ Or, they can be removed
(at last resort)

Thus, the motion of privilege must be used to maintain the sanctity of the democracy.

Compare the powers of the head of state in India and the UK. How do their roles reflect the constitutional principles of their respective systems? (Answer in 150 words) 10 Marks

Head of state in India is the President of India (Article 52) and head of the UK is the Monarch, who is just a ceremonial head of the government.

President of India	Monarch of UK
- Appointed by the CJI	- By the Church on death of predecessors.
- Electoral college elect the President	- hereditary in nature
- Remains for generally 5 years	- till the death. King Charles after death of her Mother.

→ act on aid & advice of the Council of Ministers

→ Give assent to the bills.

→ Resident is Rashtrapati Bhavan, Delhi

→ Act on the self-decisions, no executive influence.

→ No such powers.

→ Resident is in London, England.

Roles reflecting Constitutional principles

① India is Republican democracy where Constitution is supreme & In UK Monarchical republic, where parliament is supreme, not Constitution.

② Still follow Monarchical form of government (UK) and India → democratic form. (elected head)

Thus, the Constitutional principles shows the differences between the head of state in UK & India.

What are the constitutional provisions related to minority educational institutions in India? How have judicial pronouncements shaped the balance between the right to equality and the right to preserve minority identity in India? (Answer in 150 words) 10 Marks

Article 30 of the Constitution provided for the Minority Educational Institutions (MEIs) for the linguistic and religious Minorities in India.

Constitutional Provisions for MEIs

- ① Article 29, 30 → Can establish its own MEI ⊕ Can preserve its own language, script and culture.
- ② Under Article 15 → No reservation for SC/STs in Minority educational Institution.
- ③ Article 14 → gave equality to all to establish any kind of Institution.

Judicial pronouncement shaping balance between Right to Equality and Right of Minorities

① In the UP Madrasa Case, SC gave the Madrasa to have Religious teachings upto Fazil Courses, but also have secular teachings

② In many Cases, the # teachers appointment, salaries & service conditions can be of MEI but syllabus needs to be of CBSE, State, ICSE as in Case of Christian schools.

③ They can have the students from any community but can't force the students of their community to attend it.

Reservation in Jobs - Article 16
- ④ Bring the upliftment of the poor, SC/STs → Scholarship,
Internships, etc.

Issues with respect to the freebies:-

- ① Increases the fiscal deficit of the government.
- ② Goes against the Fiscal Responsibility Budget Management proposals.
- ③ Distorts the public opinion
- ④ Can't differentiate between freebies & welfare schemes.

Way forward

- ① In Subramaniam Balaji Case, SC said 'culture of freebies' must be implemented with caution
- ② Dialogues & debates with other political parties.

Therefore, the freebies culture often distorts the public opinion, it must be differentiated from welfare schemes.

Structural barriers have long impeded the development of a robust research environment, despite the presence of numerous institutions. Discuss how the Anusandhan National Research Foundation (ANRF) seeks to address these structural challenges.

(Answer in 250 words) 15 Marks

Anusandhan National Research Foundation (ANRF) is the step of government to impede the structural barriers in the research environment to bring robustness.

Structural Barriers are :-

- ① Issues of Funding to the Research organisations
- ② lack of budgeting (0.6% of GDP; China = 2-3%)
- ③ lack of Inter-Ministerial & departmental Coordination.
- eg) Between DBT, DST, etc.

④ The scientist, Researchers need foreign exposure, which is missing or lacking.

⑤ Interns are not paid well → few Phd scholars in our country now-a-days

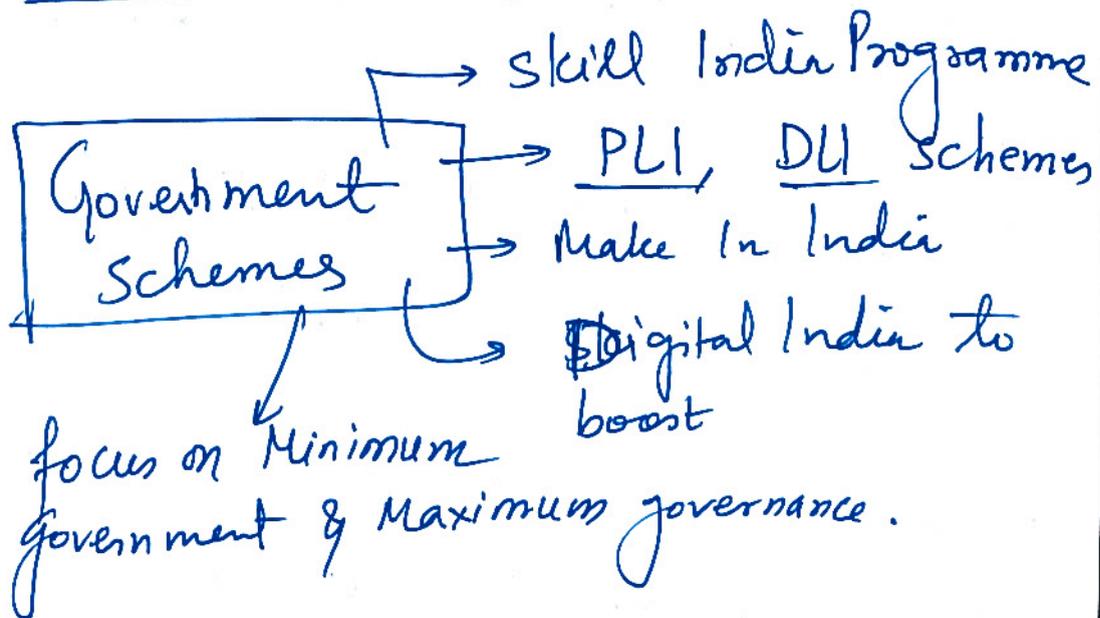

ANRF as the solution to the structural Barrier as ① Funding is done through Mobilisation from private sector, philanthropist, etc.

② Integrated nodal centre for coordination among the departments.

③ Increasing the avenues for the internships, scholars.

- ④ Advocating for the increase in the government budget
- ⑤ Training exposure to the fellow researchers.
- ⑥ Having Academia - Government and Research Industries linkages.
- (eg) → Semi conductors, Defence & Pharmaceuticals.

Hence, it is seen that the ANRF is the step towards the robustness of the Research foundation.
