

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Dear Students,

In the wake of the resurging Covid-19 cases and the latest Government guidelines, NEXT IAS has decided to make necessary changes with an immediate effect.

All the Offline classrooms have been shifted to Live/Online mode for unhindered learning without breaking the flow of the syllabus. Following the government orders on weekend curfews, the institute will stay closed on Saturday and Sunday until further notice. Hence, all the activities scheduled to be carried out on Saturday and Sunday will be conducted online and telephonically.

For better cooperation and connectivity between the students and the management, we are providing you with an updated list of emails and contact numbers which can be accessed during the office hours and classroom timings. Please keep patience or call after sometime, in case our counsellors are busy answering other students.
